

PPP Update November 2024

Thank you to everyone who completed the recent People and Place Questionnaire. We were so pleased to get such a good response-and now the working group are collating the data for analysis. Once we have reviewed all the responses, we will arrange the next opportunities for you to be involved in developing the themes identified and the new ideas proposed by some of you. Please watch out for updates on the village website and Face book page